This International Financial Statement is for use by international undergraduate student applicants who have completed the Florida A&M University application for admissions. This form is not an application for admissions; it is required supplementary information needed for your immigration document (called an "I-20" for F-1 visa applicants).

US immigration law requires the University to verify that any student seeking an F-1 Visa has sufficient funds to finance their studies for the duration of their program.

The Office of International Education and Development will issue you the appropriate immigration document only AFTER you have 1). Complete this form and submitted acceptable financial documents to the Office of Undergraduate Admissions. AND 2). Been formally admitted to Florida A&M University. Failure to read the instructions and complete the form correctly will result in delays in the processing of your application and issuance of your immigration document.

Instructions:

- Complete the International Financial Statement for Undergraduates.
- The International Financial Statement is a form fillable file, allowing you to type information on the form directly. If you cannot do so, print this form and write by hand. Print legibly in BLOCK letters. Note that physical signatures are required on page 2, not typed names alone.

NOTE: You will need original copies of your financial documents for your visa appointment at the U.S. Consulate. It is recommended that you request several original signatures/copies from your bank for future use. Also, copy the International Financial Statement for your records.

Estimated Fees (Non-Resident)

Tuition and Fees (30 credits)	$18,429.00
Room and Board	$13,256.00
Books and Supplies	$1,000.00
Other personal expenses	$4,000.00
Health Insurance	$3,239.00
TOTAL	$39,924.00

These figures are estimated costs for the calendar year (12 months) and are subject to increase without notice. Annual increases in tuition and fees are anticipated. Tuition covers two semesters (15 hours per semester).

Summer enrollment requirements

Undergraduate students attending the summer session will need an estimated additional amount of $10,621.62 for tuition and fees. Note: You are required to earn at least nine (9) hours prior to graduation by attendance in one or more summer terms to complete university requirements for graduation.

Dependents: If bringing a spouse and/or children, you must show an additional $4,000 for your spouse and $6,000 for each child who will be in the U.S. as your dependents. This does not include dependents with U.S. citizenship. Individuals other than your spouse or child cannot be considered dependents for immigration purposes. If purchasing insurance in the U.S. for dependents, actual costs for dependents could increase. Note: All J2 dependents are required to carry insurance coverage at all times during their stay in the U.S.

Important Information about Financial Documents:

- Proof of funds must be current when the I-20 is processed.
- Only official, original statements in English are accepted.
- Account holder name must be listed in English.
- All proof must be stated in U.S. dollars and clearly state the date that the documents was written or printed.
- Original signed documentations are required by mail only, with the exception of copies of award letters.
- Funds must be available in the form of liquid assets that can easily be converted into cash.
- Printouts from on-line bank accounts are NOT accepted without an official signature and stamp from the bank.

Acceptable account examples for I-20 issuance:

- Checking, savings, or money market accounts showing liquid funds
- Bank statements, bank letters, loan letters, or sponsorship letter on official letterhead signed by an official, stamped, and containing the official's contact details
- All documentation must show the name of the account holder, the type of account, a date within the past 6 months, and the amount currently available (currencies besides U.S. Dollars are acceptable)
- Scholarship or Grant award letter from U.S. government, foreign government, or international agency specifying what expenses are covered and any upper limits on those expenses.

Admissions regularly verifies funding so all documentation must contain the name, title, phone number and email address for an official that can verify the authenticity of the document.

Unacceptable account examples for I-20 issuance:

- Pension or retirement savings accounts
- Salary or benefits statements
- Non-liquid assets or accounts, such as real estate, rental income, inventory, or financial accounts that are not accessible
- Art or commodity holdings
- Business accounts without an individual account holder name
- Credit card limits or balances
- Funds from another F-1 or J-1 visa holder
- Investment accounts (stocks, bonds)
- Life insurance policies
- Salary verification letters
- Time deposits or Certificates of Deposit that have withdrawal restrictions or have not matured
- Documentation that does not match the name of the Affidavit or sponsor letter.
- Documentation that is older than 6 months.

Documentation that does not contain the name, title, phone number and email address for an official that can verify the authenticity of the document.

Shipment of your Immigration Document: When your I-20 is in process, you will receive an e-mail from the Office of International Education and Development with further instructions about arranging for the shipment.

Additional Information

- Tuition and fees are subject to change without notification.
- Health insurance is mandatory for all international students. The student health insurance policy must be purchased from an American based company on an annual basis prior to registration, unless proof of comparable insurance is annually furnished to the University's insurance provider. Failure to have such insurance during any semester shall result in a hold being placed on student's registration and/or receipt of insurance provider.
- Expenses do not include travel.
- Submit your financial documents and International Student Financial Statement as early as possible to ensure timely processing of your application. You can submit documents with your application, or separately if necessary.
